

The Pass-the-Plate Devos

"Families passing on the faith as they pass their plates at the Family Table during the second week of Lent"

Bible Focus: Mark 8:31-38

He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again. He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" he said. "You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it. What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels."

The Gospel of our Lord!
Thanks be to God!

Lenten Table Prayer

Thank you for the world so sweet,
Thank you for the food we eat,
Thank you for the birds that sing,
Thank you God for everything. Amen.

Share a time that you
got in trouble.
What did you do?
What were the consequences?

1. What did Jesus say that the Son of Man must suffer?
2. When Peter pulled Jesus aside, what did Jesus say to him?
3. If anyone wants to follow Jesus what must that person do?
4. Fill in the blanks: For whoever wants to ___ his life will ___ it. Whoever ___ his life for me and for the Gospel will ___ it.

FAMILY CHALLENGE

There is nothing that can take the place of time spent together as a family. So – set aside some play time this week. Plan a game night. What will you play? Will you invite another family? What night of the week works best?
